

NORTON ROSE FULBRIGHT FACULTY EXCELLENCE AWARDS CHANGES

Effective 2021-2022 academic year

CHANGES TO NRF PROCESS

Why?

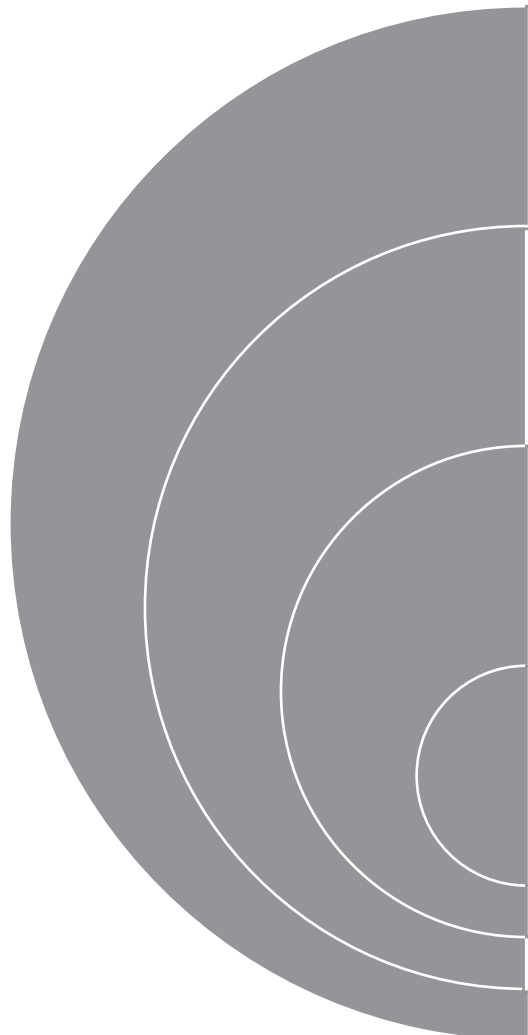

- To make things easier for faculty applicants based on faculty feedback
- To allow applicants to better convey relevant information to reviewers
- To improve inter-rater reliability in scoring of portfolios based on feedback from reviewers

CHANGES TO NRF PROCESS

What?

- Changes to structured summary templates to allow faculty to describe the activities in detail. Increase in page limit to 6 pages
- Changes to personal statement with addition of guiding reflection questions
- Page limit for appendices changed to 20 pages, not including solicited letters or BCM CV
- Maximum of 4 solicited letters
- Change to rubric based scoring rather than standard setting examples-based scoring
- Change in eligibility to apply for award in the categories of teaching and evaluation (TE) and educational leadership (EL)

ELIGIBILITY

Teaching and Evaluation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5 years at BCM
Educational Leadership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 5 years at BCM • Involved in educational leadership for 5 years • At least 3 years in main leadership position (e.g. program director)
Educational Research	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No time limitation though usually involves a few years for conducting and disseminating the research
Educational Material	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No time limitation though usually involves a few years for production and dissemination of material

- BCM Faculty Member (instructor, assistant professor, associate professor or professor)
- Please note that instructors do not include an instructor role as a trainee (i.e., as a fellow and/or chief resident).
- Time starts post trainee status

SCORING CHANGES

PRIOR SCORING COMPARED TO EXAMPLES

Goals – 5 points

Personal Preparation and Self reflection-10 points

Quantity 40 points

Quality 35 points

Breadth 10 points

NEW SCORING BASED ON RUBRIC

Goals- 5 points

Educator Development 5 points

Self-reflection and improvement-5 points

Portfolio preparation- 5 points

Quality- 40 points (methods 20 points; Results 20 points)

Quantity- 30 points

Breadth- 10 points

CHANGES TO APPLICATION MATERIAL

New transmittal form

New personal statement with reflective questions

- to allow applicants to better convey relevant information to reviewers

New structured summary templates

- to allow applicants to better convey relevant information to reviewers
- to align the format of NRF structured summaries with the FAP teaching portfolio template

Resubmissions cover letter

- For resubmissions of previously unsuccessful applicants
- requirement of a cover letter addressing the feedback and describing changes to the new portfolio

CHANGES TO TEACHING & EVALUATION

Eligibility (5 years as BCM faculty)

Personal Statement Prompts

New Structured Summary template

Rubric for scoring instead of comparison to examples
(provided to applicants)

Examples of how to fill out structured summary provided to applicants

CHANGES TO EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

Eligibility (5 years as BCM faculty)

Personal Statement Prompts

New Structured Summary template

Rubric for scoring instead of comparison to examples (provided to applicants)

Example of how to fill out structured summary provided to applicants

CHANGES TO EDUCATIONAL MATERIALS

Removed enduring from name

Personal Statement Prompts

New Structured Summary- subheadings for types of material;
number of hours and learner group added

Rubric for scoring instead of comparison to examples
(provided to applicants)

Example of how to fill out structured summary provided to applicants

CHANGES TO EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Personal Statement Prompts

New Structured Summary- subheadings for types of material; number of hours and learner group added

Rubric for scoring instead of comparison to examples (provided to applicants)

Example of how to fill out structured summary provided to applicants

QUESTIONS?

- Email Office of Faculty Development- faced@bcm.edu