SECTION OF ENDOCRINOLOGY, DIABETES AND METABOLISM

SECTION ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- In 2021, our faculty were awarded four additional federal grants from the NIH and one from the Veterans Administration. Thanks to this, we rank second in NIH-funded grants awarded to the Department of Medicine's divisions and centers.

- Our faculties have been published in some of the top scientific journals, including Nature, and some of the top journals related to our discipline, such as Diabetes, the Journal of the Endocrine Society, Endocrinology and the Journal of Clinical Endocrinology and Metabolism.

- During the last year, our effort at Baylor Clinic has significantly increased after recruiting four additional endocrinologists.

- Dr. Ruchi Gaba became the new co-director of the Thyroid and Parathyroid Center at the Baylor Clinic in the Dan L Duncan Comprehensive Cancer Center.

- Dr. Bahar Force became the new medical director of the Pituitary Center at Baylor Clinic in Neurosurgery.

- Clearly and despite these trying times, our faculty remain committed to advancing the science and clinical practice of endocrinology, diabetes & metabolism to the next level.

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Grants

Sean Hartig, PhD

- NIH/NIDDK; Role of FGF21 in the pathogenesis of HIV-associated metabolic disease; $218,1973
- Nancy Chang, PhD, Award for Research Excellence; $30,000

Massimo Pietropaolo, MD

- NIH/NIDDK; Enhancement of biomarkers for Type 1 diabetes; $470,841.
- NIH/NIDDK; Utilizing islet autoantibody signatures for precision medicine in Type 2 diabetes; $59,275

Zheng Sun, PhD

- NIH/NHLBI; Cardiac circadian clock and dilated cardiomyopathy; $1,200,000
- NIH/NIA; Circadian clock gene Rev-erb in memory dysfunction in Alzheimer's disease, $1,000,000
- NIH/NIA; Enduring effects of high estrogen on Alzheimer's disease; $200,000

Rajagopal Sekhar, MD

- NIH/NIA; Glutathione, brain metabolism and inflammation in Alzheimer's disease; $4,014,755.
- NIH/NIA; Trial of GlyNAC in older adults with COVID-19: Glutathione, inflammation and recovery; $520,848

Dennis Villareal, MD

- NIH; Does lifestyle intervention in obese older adults improve bone quality?; $2,439,619
- VA Merit Grant; Lifestyle intervention plus metformin to treat frailty in older veterans with obesity; $1,197,250

Wenjun Zhou, PhD

- ADA; Regulation of hepatic insulin sensitivity by the hypothalamic circadian clock; $67,742

CENTERS

Thyroid and Parathyroid Center

The Thyroid and Parathyroid Center is a world-class medical facility in Houston where patients can be seen simultaneously by a surgeon and endocrinologist for treatment of both benign and malignant tumors of the thyroid, parathyroid, adrenal, and endocrine pancreas. World-renowned endocrinologists work closely with a multidisciplinary team, including specialists in surgery, radiology, pathology, nuclear medicine, ear/nose/throat and oncology to provide you a personal treatment plan, all under one roof. These doctors work together for one, cohesive treatment plan. From routine medical endocrinology to complex cancer care, to surgery of the thyroid, parathyroid, adrenal and endocrine pancreas, the Thyroid & Parathyroid Center offers the highest-quality patient care with excellent outcomes. The center is located at the Baylor St. Luke’s Medical Center’s Dan L Duncan Comprehensive Cancer Center at McNair Campus.
