

2022 Graduates - Dual Medical Ethics and Health Policy Pathways

Name	Project Title	Residency
Rohit Gupta	Ethical Allocation of Future COVID-19 Vaccines	Dermatology University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center Dallas, TX Transition Year: Kingwood Medical Center Houston, TX
Trevor Hadley	Tackling Medical Student Burnout: A Behavioral Economic Framework for the Design and Delivery of Burnout Interventions	Family Medicine Baylor College of Medicine Houston, TX
Geordyn Hoge	Effective Eligibility Criteria for Medicaid Policies Providing Supportive Palliative Care (SPC)	Internal Medicine – Primary Care Track NYU Langone, New York City, NY
Rishabh Kothari	Addressing the physician shortage in rural America: policy recommendations and ethical considerations	General Surgery University of Washington Seattle, WA
Cody Miller Pyke	OPTIMIZING CIVIL COMMITMENT UNDER THE TEXAS MENTAL HEALTH CODE Reforms are needed to ensure health equity and patient safety	Deferring Residency