<https://facultyawards.bcm.edu/>

The Office of Faculty Development provides professional growth resources and opportunities that enable Baylor faculty members to excel and advance in their roles across all mission areas of the College. Baylor's faculty development initiatives include institution-wide programs for educator development, educational research, coaching, teamwork skills and recognition of faculty excellence. Many of these programs are developed and offered in collaboration with other Baylor entities, such as the Office of Diversity and Inclusion, and the Center for Professionalism. Major components of faculty development are the College-wide faculty awards which recognize excellence in education and in patient care.
