

Reflect on Your Progress

Answer the questions below with your parent. These questions will help you see how awesome you have been doing so far and what other things you can work on!

What has gone well?

What has gone differently than you expected?

What challenges have there been?

What do you think you need to keep doing?

What do you wish to change?