

APPRECIATION MESSAGES FOR POSTDOCS

The kudoboard is open for contributions and will close on Wednesday, September 20, 2023. Please do not share the board on social media or elsewhere until it is completed.

What can you post?

Post a short message for an individual postdoc or group of postdocs with or without an uploaded image of your own, an image or GIF from the kudoboard library, or a video. When you are ready to post, you can skip the request for an email address.

Who can post?

Anyone who wants to share his or her appreciation for postdocs at Baylor College of Medicine! We welcome messages from faculty, staff, and trainees.

Add to the kudoboard here.

From the Communications Team

Do not engage in any form of harassment, derogatory or inflammatory remarks. Respect the intellectual property of others. Do not violate copyrighted or trademarked material. When sharing content online, be sure to follow copyright law and fair use laws. Photos or videos of research models are not to be posted on any social media outlet without first being vetted by the CCM director or designee. Photos or videos of labs are not to show research models in background unless approved by the CCM director.

If you have any questions, please email the Office of Postdoctoral Affairs at postdocaffairs@bcm.edu.
