

BCM Psychiatry Grand Rounds

Menninger Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences

Co-provided by Baylor College of Medicine and The Menninger Clinic

October 2023 • 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.

Zoom / Meeting ID: 960 6814 1490 / Password: 606550

Or

McNair Campus, Conference Room A

Zoom Only

October 4, 2023

Controversies Around Antipsychotics Medications in the Treatment of Psychotic Disorders

Awais Aftab, MD

Clinical Assistant Professor
Department of Psychiatry
Case Western University

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:

- Recognize current controversies in scientific literature around the impact of antipsychotics on brain volume, cognition, functional recovery, and relapse risk.
- Appraise the evidence that relates to the use of psychosocial treatment approaches as first-line alternatives in the care of psychotic disorders.
- Appreciate and navigate treatment dilemmas faced by clinicians in light of these scientific controversies.

Hybrid: Zoom & In Person

October 11, 2023

First Do No Harm: Current Issues and Controversies in Pediatric Gender Medicine

Kathleen McDeavitt, MD

Assistant Professor
Menninger Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences
Baylor College of Medicine

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:

- Summarize the pediatric gender medicine guidelines from different parts of the world.
- List and appraise the studies and reviews underlying these recommendations.
- Define the four basic principles of medical ethics and contextualize this subject within that framework.

Hybrid: Zoom & In Person

October 18, 2023

Risks and Benefits of Social Media in Psychiatric Education

Howard Liu, MD

Chairman
Department of Psychiatry
University of Nebraska Medical Center

Kim-Lan Czelusta, MD
Vice Chair Education
Menninger Department of Psychiatry & Behavioral Sciences
Baylor College of Medicine

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:

- Explain why e-professionalism is important for academic health centers.
- Recall two benefits and two risks of social media utilization for psychiatrists, psychologists, and healthcare professionals.
- Apply the three P's framework for e-professionalism to a case study on social media and psychiatric education.

Zoom Only

October 25, 2023

The Effects of Corticosteroid Excess on the Human Brain

Sherwood Brown, MD
Professor
Department of Psychiatry
UT Southwestern Medical Center

Objectives: At the conclusion of this session, participants should be able to:

- Describe the types of psychiatric symptoms that frequently present during corticosteroid therapy.
 - Describe the brain regions that appear to be most sensitive to the effects of corticosteroids.
 - Discuss potential options to treat or prevent the effects of corticosteroids on the human brain.
-

