

MARCH 2026

PROFESSIONALISM MONTH

Week Tues, March 3, 7:15am to 8am - Alkek N202

- #1 Muffins with Mentors - Dr. Joslyn Fisher Learners and junior faculty will meet with Dr. Joslyn Fisher, Professor of Medicine and Chief of the Section of General Internal Medicine, to learn about her personal and professional journey. RSVP required, limited to 15 participants. Click here to sign up

Week Fri, March 13, 8am - VIRTUAL

- #2 Profiles in Professionalism featuring Dr. Marco Carvalho Filho, Professor of Research in Health Profession Education, University Medical Center Groningen
Offered In Collaboration with Huffington Department Of Education, Innovation & Technology (HDEIT) Click here for TEAMS meeting link

Week Wed, March 18, Noon - VIRTUAL

- #3 Professionalism, It's Complicated:
A panel discussion hosted by the Professionalism Partners
Will engage all members of the Baylor community in discussions of how the institution can best support a positive professional culture. Co-sponsored by BCM Well-being (80 points) Click here for TEAMS meeting link

Week Tues, March 24 , 4pm - Alkek N104

- #4 Becoming and belonging: a guided journaling experience for faculty with Dr. Ruchi Gaba in collaboration with the Humanities Expression and Arts Lab (HEAL)
Faculty will be invited to engage in guided reflection and writing, focused on enhancing one's professional identity and meaning in work. No prior journaling experience needed. RSVP required; limited to 25 participants Click here to sign up

Week Tues, March 31st , 5pm - Cullen Auditorium

- #5 TEN-talks on Professionalism
Ten scientists will share their perspectives on the importance of professionalism. Following the presentation, come celebrate all POP award winners at a special reception following in Rayzor Lounge! OPEN TO EVERYONE IN THE BAYLOR COMMUNITY!

