

2025 GRADUATE
SCHOOL COURSE

COMMERCIALIZATION OF
Biomedical Technologies

Begins Monday, March 17th 11AM

Baylor College of Medicine
N315, Alkek Building, GSBS

Supported by BCM Ventures

Baylor College of Medicine Ventures fosters a culture of commercialization by engaging university innovators, entrepreneurs and industry to fully develop ideas and identify market opportunities or collaborative ventures for the benefit of society.

About Commercialization of Biomedical Technologies

Course Content Topics

Expanded 2 Credit Hour Format:

More Depth, More Content, More Commercialization Experts!

- Intellectual Property Protection Strategies
- Intellectual Property Licensing
- Start Up Entrepreneurship, Four Distinct Modules
- Obtaining Venture Capital Funding
- Development Of Therapeutics
- Development Of Medical Devices & Software
- Panel Discussion: CEOs and Their Academic Founders

Geared toward Graduate School Students. Faculty may audit the course.

More information about BCM Ventures: <https://www.bcm.edu/about-us/bcm-ventures>