

Ari Roberts

Ari Roberts (they/them) is originally from St. Louis, Missouri and is a person of transmasculine experience. They graduated from Purdue University with a B.S. in Biomedical Engineering in 2020. Shortly after, they started at Baylor College of Medicine came out as nonbinary and started their medical transition. Currently, they are a 3rd year Ph.D. student studying metabolic networks in the nasal microbiome. In their free time they enjoy running, playing the drums, and reading in their hammock.