Clickable Image

Clickable Image has been improved to be more accessible:

Clickable Image activities still have red and green pin markers to indicate clicked locations. For correctness, the markers will display either checkmarks or x's for correct and incorrect answers.
Revealing regions or correctness will darken and blue the undefined areas of the image, while keeping the marked regions bright and in-focus.

Q&A

Q&A activities have been tidied up so that interaction doesn't obscure the content:

Up and downvotes are now displayed below the response, and the "favorite" (star) and "hide" (checkmark) options are now on the far right of the response box.
